MYERS

CHARACTER

ROSALIND MYERS

The former CEO of Militech and the current President of the New United States of America. Currently in her third term, Myers is in the unenviable position of running a country at a time when power is wielded by corporations. While traveling on the Space Force One, Myers crash lands in Dogtown, triggering a power struggle with far-reaching consequences.

NUSA CHALLENGE COIN

The token that made V an official FIA agent, personally handed out by President Rosalind Myers herself. This silver and blue challenge coin bears bold imagery associated with the NUSA, from the wide-winged eagle and NUSA flag on the obverse to Myers' striking portrait on the reverse. Not only does this coin show proof of one's membership in the NUSA's ranks, it also doubles as a digital fingerprint, storing an agent's FIA credentials and profile within its metallic body.
