CHARACTER

SONGBIRD

Once a hotshot teenage netrunner taking on dangerous – and illegal – missions, Songbird caught the attention of the FIA during a particularly daring heist. It didn't take long before her talent cemented her position as President Myers' right hand.

SO MI'S NETRUNNING CYBERWARE

So Mi's top-of-the-line Militech cyberware makes deep plunges into the Net possible without the need of an ice bath or a skull jack. From the front, the top-grade synthskin doesn't betray the neat array of glistening chrome and bright yellow wires that snake up her arms and spine – but the back gives a proper glimpse of the netrunning power that courses through her body.
