GUIDE VIKTOR

VEKTOR

CHARACTER

VIKTOR VEKTOR

If a good ripperdoc is worth their weight in chrome, then Viktor may as well be a Militech Basilisk. Any aspiring cyberpunk can hop into Vik's chair and know they'll come out the other side with all their organs and implants in place. He's reliable, trustworthy, and armed with a dry wit – not to mention a storied past.

EXOGLOVE

For a ripperdoc, Vik isn't especially chromed out. His exoglove is his one concession to cyberware, slotting over his organic fingers and giving them a precision others achieve only with a full chrome replacement. The glove's soft leather is covered with wiring and a metal frame that ensures stability even during the riskiest of surgeries.

FAN CONTENT GUIDELINES

We really appreciate all the work that our community puts into showing their love for our games and, to support you in this, we've put together Fan Content Guidelines. Please remember to follow them while creating, wearing and showcasing your cosplay. In other words:

DO

- create cosplays inspired by our games
- show them off on your social media channels
- wear them to conventions, fairs, meet-ups, etc.

DO NOT

- create cosplays for sale
- use your cosplays to promote other companies/products
- claim you are officially sponsored by CD PROJEKT RED
- do anything offensive or illegal while wearing your cosplay
